From Our Pastor:

Happy Easter! Jesus Christ is risen, truly He is risen! Let us pray that we have a joyous and blessed Easter Season, growing in our love for Jesus Christ, His Church and for one another.

The second Sunday of the Easter Season (April 8th this year) is Divine Mercy Sunday. On April 30, 2000, Pope Saint John Paul II instituted the Feast of the Divine Mercy when he canonized the first saint of the new millennium: Sister Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938). On Divine Mercy Sunday four years ago, Pope Francis canonized Pope John Paul II and Pope John XXIII, recognizing their heroic lives of virtue and declaring them saints. God's mercy, His loving forgiveness, wrought for us by Jesus Christ in His Passion, Death and Resurrection and Ascension into Heaven, is readily available to us any time that we sincerely seek His mercy.

In the 1930s, Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ appeared several times to Saint Faustina and told her to promote devotion to His Divine Mercy, to have an image painted of Him expressing His Divine Mercy. This image represents the Crucified and Risen Christ bringing mercy to the world – indeed, only the mercy and love of God will quench the thirst of all people. The white ray emanating from the Lord's heart represents the water that recalls the Sacrament of Baptism and the gift of the Holy Spirit. The red ray represents the Blood of Christ, recalling for us the Sacrifice of Christ on the Cross and His gift of the Holy Eucharist. After each Mass next weekend, our parish family will pray the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy while venerating an image of the Divine Mercy in church (we do not worship images, but thank God for such holy reminders that help us to think of Him and His saints). On Good Friday, we began a Novena to the Divine Mercy. Please see the pamphlets and holy cards at the entrances of church, and thedinivemercy.org and marian.org for information about the Divine Mercy devotion that Jesus has given to His Church. May we join in the prayers from the Chaplet: Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world. For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world. Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

May we keep always in our heart, and in our words and actions, the prayer that Jesus Christ, Divine Mercy Himself, taught to Saint Faustina, which appears on the image of the Divine Mercy: "Jesus, I trust in You." And let us remember the "ABCs" of God's Mercy: Ask for His Mercy. Be merciful. Completely trust in Jesus, for He is the Only Savior of the world.

With peace and prayers for a blessed and joyous Easter in Christ,

Fr. William

FIRST FRIDAY EUCHARISTIC ADORATION APRIL 6 & 7

Please sign up on the schedule near the Fatima Chapel. You may come at any time during the 24-hour adoration, however, signing up for just one hour will assure at least one person is in the Chapel at all times keeping vigil with the Blessed Sacrament throughout the day and night. Thank you for the donation of your time!

FORMED: HANDING ON THE GIFT OF OUR FAITH!

The first disciples used word of mouth and the written word to proclaim their faith and belief in the Risen Christ as the only Savior of the world. While this still necessary, with the advance of technology we have so many more ways to share the Gospel. FORMED is one of these.

FORMED offers opportunities for faith formation and enrichment any time, anywhere. FORMED brings together numerous Catholic publishers into one web location, offering the opportunity to do Bible studies, learn about saints, watch movies, read e-books and more. St. Clement Parish has purchased a parish subscription to FORMED that allows all parishioners access to this treasure chest of faith enrichment.

To get connected to FORMED, go to www.FORMED.org. At the top of the page you will see the words "Enter Code." Click on this and enter our parish code which is DHYNXC. Next, you will be asked for your name and email address, as well as a password. (You will use your password and your email address to log in to FORMED in the future). Once you are at the FORMED site, you will begin to see the many possibilities that FORMED offers. For example, you can watch a short film titled, "Did Jesus Really Rise From The Dead?" or learn more about "The Shroud of Turin." In the upper right hand corner of the page, you will see your initials and an >. Click on that to see the "profile" and "sign out" buttons of FORMED.

Please note-- you should not use Internet Explorer for the FORMED site, as some of the features are not compatible. Using Chrome or Firefox as your browser should allow you to access the FORMED site without encountering problems. Please contact the parish office if you have any questions or are having trouble getting registered.

The April edition of Magnificat and the Easter edition of The Word Among Us are available at the entrance of the church. Please take one or both of these excellent resources to enhance your daily prayer in this joyous Season of Easter.

The Spring and Summer EWTN schedules are now available in the pamphlet holders at the entrance of the church. There are some excellent studies beginning in April. These include "The Bible and the Virgin Mary," and "Scripture and Tradition with Fr. Mitch," to name a few. Be sure to pick up a schedule to get the complete program listings available on EWTN.

ALLELUIA, HE IS RISEN!

Today we begin the joyous 50 Days of the Easter Season that will culminate on May 20, the Solemnity of Pentecost. On the first Easter, and again at His Ascension, Jesus gave the command to go and tell others of the Good News and the new life He brought forth by His Passion, Death and Resurrection. It was this message of God's mercy and love that changed lives and still does. Like the first Christians, and those of the past 2000 years, may we share the Good News of the Lord Jesus with those in our homes, our places of work or school, and with all we meet. Let us be messengers of Christ's joy to a waiting world.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Please join us next Sunday as we observe Divine Mercy Sunday. God's Divine Mercy runs throughout Sacred Scripture, beginning in the Book of Genesis and culminating in Jesus' Ministry and His Passion, Death, Resurrection and Ascension into Heaven. Jesus' entire life of mercy is the mercy He entrusted to His apostles. It is Jesus' Divine Mercy that we experience today in many ways, but most keenly in the Sacraments. After all of the Masses next weekend, April 7 & 8, Fr. William will lead us in praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet. Please consider remaining after Mass a few extra minutes as we implore the Divine Mercy of God, asking God to "have mercy on us and on the whole world."

"Jesus, I Trust In You!"

FAMILY PROMISE: OUR HOST WEEK IS COMING UP SOON!

Our week to host families experiencing homelessness is coming up the week of April 15, so we need to get ready to once again offer them our care and hospitality. Volunteer Sign-Up Forms for the various areas of service are on a table in the entrance of church. Please sign up early in order for us to be ready on the 15th. Just one reminder- please do not bring in food items at this time. As we get closer to our host date, we will contact people for the items we need. If you have any questions, or are interested in helping out but have not done so in the past, please give Bill Manthe a call at 723-4990. As of this writing, there are no families in the program, but that can change at any time. So we do need to be ready, and you can help us be prepared by volunteering a bit of your time. Thanks!

YEAR OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

We rejoice in the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, and praise God for His goodness to His people. The Power of the Most Holy Trinity to bring about our Salvation through Creation and the Life, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ continues to work in the Church and in each of us today. Grace, God’s saving action in our souls, prompts us to recognize and acknowledge the abundant gift of His Creation, the mercy and healing of the Sacraments, the Life of Christ within us in the Eucharist, and the Guidance of the Holy Spirit on our journey to Heaven. God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit waits for our joyful prayer and cooperation so the grace of the Cross and Resurrection of Jesus Christ can extend to every age and time, accomplishing, in imitation of Jesus, God’s will in each of us.

Let us pray:

Come to us, Holy Spirit, come,
one with the Father and the Son,
vouchsafe to dwell within our souls
and quickly make our hearts Thine own.
Let voice and mind, and heart and strength
confess and glorify Thy name,
and let the fire of charity burn bright,
and other hearts inflame.
Amen.

Holy Spirit, my Friend and my Guide, Strengthen me.
