Greetings!

As I write this note, it's about 50 degrees on a mid-October day. As we look to the lector schedule, we will be closing out the season Ordinary Time at the end of November, and then beginning the new liturgical Church Year with four weeks of Advent, followed by the Christmas season, and returning to the start of Ordinary Time in early January. In addition to the weekend schedule, we have many Holy Days and other observances that will be celebrated. A lot will be happening in these three months, not only liturgically, but within families as we gather together for the holidays. Enjoy these times with your loved ones. As I get older, the more I appreciate the time spent with family and loved ones.

The new Lector Workbooks will be arriving soon. Please note that these coincide with the liturgical year. This means that we will start to use them beginning on the First Sunday of Advent, and not before.

As always, thank you for your commitment in serving our parish as lectors, and in all that you do for our parish family of St. Clement. Have a beautiful time with family and friends as we celebrate the gift of God's abiding presence with us, and His love for us. We have much to be thankful for!

*Christ's joy and peace be yours~
Bill*
