Greetings all!

As I write this, it's so hard to believe that school is about to start, that Labor Day is fast approaching, and by the time this schedule ends, we will have celebrated Thanksgiving Day and Advent will be upon us. On the news this morning, the meteorologist was saying that on September 1, we begin meteorological autumn. The year is passing very quickly.

This schedule is very straight forward. We do have one Holy Day – All Saints Day – that will be celebrated, as well as Thanksgiving Day. I will be asking for volunteers for the Masses on those days as we get closer.

When the next schedule comes out, I will have your new Lector Workbooks ready to be picked up.

Enjoy these final weeks of summer and our transition into autumn!

*Christ's peace be yours~
Bill*
